DETAILED ACTION

Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.
  2. This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.
    3. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.
- Group I, claim(s) 23-25, drawn to a composition comprising insecticidally effective amount of diflubenzuron and dicyclanil and suitable carriers and diluents.
- Group II, claim(s) 26-39, drawn to a composition comprising an insecticidally effective amount of diflubenzuron and dicyclanil, a surfactant, an emulsifier, a preservative, a synergist, an antioxidant, an oily component, a solvent, a thickener, a neutralizer and optionally a coloring agent, an antifoaming agent.
- Group III, claim(s) 40 and 41, drawn to a method of topically administering the composition of claim 26 to a sheep or goat.
- Group IV, claim(s) 42, drawn to a method of topically administering the composition of claim 23 to sheep or goats.
- Group V, claim(s) 43, drawn to a method of preparing the composition of claim 26 comprising steps a)-f).
- Group VI, claim(s) 44, drawn to a method of preparing the composition of claim 26 comprising steps a)-i).

4. The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

5. The special technical feature of a composition comprising dicylanil, diflubenzuron and excipients does not provide a contribution over the prior art. See Hackett et al. (US 6955818). Hackett teaches a topical pour-on composition which comprises between 1-40% by weight of at least growth regulators such as dicyclanil and diflubenzuron (see column 4, line 50 and column 6, lines 15-38). The composition is to comprise suitable carriers and diluents (see abstract). Therefore, since the special technical feature is disclosed by the prior art, the inventions lack unity.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

7. The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

8. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

9. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Rejoinder Notice

10. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

11. In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Correction of Inventorship

12. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
